

Dear Friends,

How are you holding up?

It's been 41 days since he who shall not be named was sworn back into office. A lot's happened in a short amount of time and it's been challenging to process. Many of us feel violated that Musk's minions breached our private information. Those of us that work for the federal government fear that our jobs are in jeopardy. Anxiety overflows for our undocumented neighbors. The list goes on. Our sense of safety and security is in jeopardy and we don't know what's next.

Some of us haven't missed a beat, moving directly into action-mode, making calls and attending protests. Others feel too overwhelmed to do much of anything. Wherever you are, we're here with YOU. Below, the list grows of trainings, protests, calls to make etc. This week, you may have boundless energy to do what's asked of you on the list! If you're not in that place this week, that's OK too. We'll be here for you when you're more rested the week after! This is a marathon, not a sprint, so take care of yourself!

Virtual Meeting With Dan Pfeiffer

Monday, March 10, 5-6pm

Dan Pfeiffer, one of the experts on Pod Save America and host of Substack's 'Message Box' will join us on Zoom.

Dan will talk to us about the best ways to resist the Trump/Musk agenda, and give us an informed look at how we can make the best use of our time to engage others in meaningful action.

As Senior Advisor and Assistant to President Barack Obama, Dan understands the workings of the Federal Government and the levers that are used to enforce – and block -- Presidential powers.

In this time of what many call a Constitutional crisis, we need to hear from those whose ideas are based in practical solutions.

Just say NO to Tom Kean Jr. budget cuts

Thursday, March 20, 12-1pm

Tom Kean, Jr. pretends he is a moderate Republican, but then hides from his constituents. During this March congressional recess, we will rally outside his offices in Bernardsville to send him a message that we know he is complicit in everything the Trump-Musk administration is doing, including terrible cuts to Medicaid that will affect at least 50,000 of Tom Kean Jr.'s constituents in his district.

Bring your signs.

Those who wish can come ready to quietly visit his office, one or two at a time. Click here to register!

ACTION ALERTS

Write to NJ legislators to protect fair ballots

A5116/S4142 includes several unnecessary design elements that would advantage some candidates over others. Specifically, the legislation clutters the ballot with unnecessary markers, does not include uniformity for standard font size statewide, ignores calls to end bracketing, and does not follow best practices for ballot draw to determine candidate placement on the ballot.

Call your Senators to protect the Postal Service

The Washington Post reported that Trump is planning to sign an executive order to fire the entire Postal Board of Governors and place the USPS under the control of Wall Street billionaire Howard Lutnick, the newly appointed Commerce Secretary. This is a worst-case scenario. It's an illegal takeover that defies the Constitution, which gives Congress, not the president, authority over the Postal Service. If Trump succeeds, the USPS will be at risk of massive service cuts, much higher costs for mail delivery, and delays for prescription medications, and Social Security checks. Trump might even try to sell off parts of USPS, which provides critical services that millions of Americans rely on every day.

Click here to fill out a form to call and urge your Senators to protect the people's Post Office!

Tell Kean (NJ) or Fitzpatrick (PA) how dismayed you are that they voted to cut Medicaid, which in NJ covers 1/3 of all children

The House has passed their budget resolution H.Con.Res.14 by a mostly party line vote of 217-215. Because the Senate already passed their own, different resolution, the two legislative bodies must now come to an agreement.
