

Hello my adorable good troublemakers!

On July 2, many of you attended Indivisible Bucks County's "Die-in" inside Pa Rep. Brian Fitzpatrick's office and outside! Though the bill whose name shall not be mentioned (yes this is a Harry Potter Lord Voldemort reference) passed, your pressure, along with all the other public protests (i.e. ILNH No Kings Card Stunt), quite possibly was responsible for Rep. Fitzpatrick's NO vote! We know, we know, it was only 1 of 2 "no" votes (Rep. Thomas Massie of Kentucky was the other) and the bill passed. Rep. Tom Kean voted yes and so did the rest of the squirrely House republicans. It's maddingly frustrating. This work is a slog and it can feel defeating, but our job as activists is to keep doing it. We'll keep calling out our elected's misdeeds when they do them as they genuflect before Trump. We'll keep educating our fellow Americans on the harms this administration is doing. We'll apply pressure in all their tricky little republican spots until they do the job they were elected to do!

Attend all the upcoming events you can, especially our July 17 Night of Good Trouble Action Fair!! Bring your mom, dad, spouse, kids (there'll be kids activities), goldfish, friends etc.! You'll all feel better when you're with your people! Now, with one last pop culture reference...Avengers Assemble! Start some good trouble!!
