

Dear Friends,

Election day 🗳️ was a smashing success across the country and cause for much celebration! We hope you took time to pat yourself on the back for working so hard, fist bumped your hairless cat, and smoked 'em if you had 'em (or not since smoking is bad for us!)! Anyhoo, it was lovely.

Since rolling stones (us, sort of) gather no moss, we're on to the next thing which are boycotts, collecting grocery gift cards and lunch items for Fisherman's Mark, and our upcoming Community Gathering! Whew! We hope you join us in all of them and more by perusing the below! We have lots of work to do. Remember, just do something. It doesn't have to be big.

Check out our Instagram page, Bluesky account and join our private Fb page! If you were forwarded this email and want to subscribe, click here! Also, don't forget to check out our website! Peace in activism, Indivisible Lambertville/New Hope (ILNH)

BOYCOTTS

Boycott Spotify for Helping ICE: Indivisible National is asking all local Indivisible groups to participate in boycotting Spotify. We urge anyone who subscribes to Spotify Premium to cancel their subscription until Spotify stops running ICE ads. When ABC/Disney capitulated to the Trump regime by silencing Jimmy Kimmel this year, millions of paying customers canceled their Disney+ subscriptions and put off their Disney vacations. It worked and Jimmy Kimmel came back. Before cancelling your premium membership, transfer your playlists/libraries to TIDAL or Apple music. For a stepwise instructional video on how to cancel your Spotify premium subscription, click here. Make sure to give a reason for cancelling! For example: "I'm cancelling until Spotify terminates ICE ads." Share to social media and, if able, protest Spotify in person (click here for location). Don't use Spotify? Help us spread the word on social media so that those who DO can cancel their subscription.

Boycott Starbucks from Nov. 13 until Starbucks Workers United strike ends: Starbucks workers are going on strike November 14, red cup day, which is the day Starbucks plans to distribute free, reusable red cups. Red Cup Day, a Starbucks tradition since 2018, is typically one of the company's busiest days of the year.

For decades, Starbucks was recognized as a progressive, socially conscious corporation. But now corporate greed is squeezing both sides, so long-time customers are calling it a ripoff and workers are demanding better working conditions. Now Starbucks Workers United is escalating the pressure by going on strike and we have 3 critical ways you can support workers: 1) Delete the Starbucks app from your phone, 2) Do not make purchases at Starbucks for the duration of the strike, 3) Send a message to Starbucks CEO Brian Niccol and let him know you stand with the workers!

ACTION ALERTS

Call Senators Andy Kim and Cory Booker Today!

Democrats offered to end the shutdown if the GOP would agree (they didn't) to only a one-year extension of ACA premium subsidies. This is not enough. Please urge U.S. Senators Andy Kim (202-224-4744) and Cory Booker (202-224-3224) to vote NO to end the shutdown unless Democrats have secured very significant concessions from the Republicans on the following: 1) Permanent restoration and extension of the ACA premium subsidies, 2) Restoration of a major portion of the funding cut from SNAP and Medicaid in the Big Ugly Bill. You can call anytime and, if the office isn't open, leave a phone message.

Tell Your GOP Rep. GET TO WORK and END the SHUTDOWN!

As the Republican government shutdown continues, the USDA has warned that SNAP - Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program - benefits will end.
